

I disagree with further consolidation of our media and urge you to vote against this on June 2nd, or at the very least to postpone the decision until there has been ample time for public debate.